Explanation for the 'No' response to item 1 on the Annual Governance Statement 2021/22

The below was presented at the June 2022 Full Council meeting:

Petty Cash

In a post covid era it has accelerated a transactional behaviour where the majority of financial transactions now take place using card rather than cash. Therefore, it is important the Parish Council brings its financial regulations up to date to address these societal changes. The main issues encountered in our current procedures, are as follows:

- Several issues with the parish council credit card not working for both online and in person purchases has resulted in having to pay by cash.
- On occasion the Clerk has subsidised cash payments for items from her own pocket, due to either needing to purchase items there and then (eliminating the need of unnecessary journeys to the office to collect the petty cash). Due to time critical project works where the card payment failed. Also, the petty cash has not been regularly replenished due to issues with office workload and priorities coupled with the fact that there is not a bank within the parish and the bank in the town has significantly reduced their opening hours.
- Despite the above, it should be noted that all receipts have been kept, logged, reviewed by councillors, and matched to any payments.

The below is the suggested resolution to address both card and cash regulations, this will be reviewed and delegated to the Finance & Amenities Committee:

- The credit card now has a security token issued which is a measure to prevent fraudulent payments and thus future online purchases should no longer be 'stopped' by the credit card company.
- It is proposed the credit card limit will be increased from £2,000 to £5,000 during each calendar month to prevent the monthly spend limits impacting on purchases (particularly important during project works).
- The day to day running of the petty cash has been delegated to the Administration Officer, who has more available time and so will ensure that the reports and reimbursement of the petty cash will be actioned monthly.
- When undertaking reconciliations, councillors will now count the cash in the petty cash tin, whilst checking the receipts.
- Necessary forms/templates to ensure the above is actioned have been created.

Explanation for the 'No' response to item 5 on the Annual Governance Statement 2021/22

The below is the draft minute from the June 2022 Full Council meeting:

C035 – 28/06/2022 Risk Register

Although the Risk Register had been discussed during in the past year, these discussions had not been formally minuted and as such the Parish Council received a negative response from the Internal Auditor on the AGAR.

The discussions during the year, had centred around whether to continue with the existing Risk Register software package or if WorkNest (formerly Ellis Whittam) were able to provide such a document. The Clerk had reviewed the information available from WorkNest and although they can provide support and information on Health and Safety and employment related matters, they are not able to supply an overall Risk Register that would be suitable for the Parish Council. This is because it needs to encompass a summary of all the different categories of risk which includes matters such as reputational risk and risk to data loss through cyber security or failure of IT systems etc. which is not something WorkNest cover.

Therefore, the Parish Council's existing Risk Register will remain as is (with an annual review being undertaken and included on the Annual Governance Planning Cycle) and individual risk assessments and documents (as provided by WorkNest) will be linked to the overall summary Risk Register document.

Each Standing Committee will have the Risk Register as a standard item on the agenda of the first meeting of the Council year and make plans to review their allocated sections of the Risk Register throughout the year. Each of the Standing Committees will report back to Full Council on their reviews at the February Full Council meeting.

All these actions will be included on Planner and the Annual Governance Cycle to ensure this information is reviewed regularly and kept up to date. The Risk Register to also be made available to all councillors and staff via MS Teams.

To conclude, Peasedown St John Parish Council acknowledges that it has not formally fully reviewed the previously adopted Risk Register during the 2021/22 council year and therefore resolved to reaffirm the current Risk Register document as it stands. The Parish Council also resolved to undertake a full review of this document (with sections being assigned to the relevant Standing Committees) throughout the 2022-23 council year, with the fully reviewed and revised document to be signed off at the February 2023 Full Council meeting.

LOCAL AUTHORITY ACCOUNTS: A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS

Please note that this summary applies to all relevant smaller authorities, including local councils, internal drainage boards and 'other' smaller authorities.

The basic position

The Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014 (the Act) governs the work of auditors appointed to smaller authorities. This summary explains the provisions contained in Sections 26 and 27 of the Act. The Act and the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2015 also cover the duties, responsibilities and rights of smaller authorities, other organisations and the public concerning the accounts being audited.

As a local elector, or an interested person, you have certain legal rights in respect of the accounting records of smaller authorities. As an interested person you can inspect accounting records and related documents. If you are a local government elector for the area to which the accounts relate you can also ask questions about the accounts and object to them. You do not have to pay directly for exercising your rights. However, any resulting costs incurred by the smaller authority form part of its running costs. Therefore, indirectly, local residents pay for the cost of you exercising your rights through their council tax.

The right to inspect the accounting records

Any interested person can inspect the accounting records, which includes but is not limited to local electors. You can inspect the accounting records for the financial year to which the audit relates and all books, deeds, contracts, bills, vouchers, receipts and other documents relating to those records. You can copy all, or part, of these records or documents. Your inspection must be about the accounts, or relate to an item in the accounts. You cannot, for example, inspect or copy documents unrelated to the accounts, or that include personal information (Section 26 (6) – (10) of the Act explains what is meant by personal information). You cannot inspect information which is protected by commercial confidentiality. This is information which would prejudice commercial confidentiality if it was released to the public and there is not, set against this, a very strong reason in the public interest why it should nevertheless be disclosed.

When smaller authorities have finished preparing accounts for the financial year and approved them, they must publish them (including on a website). There must be a 30 working day period, called the 'period for the exercise of public rights', during which you can exercise your statutory right to inspect the accounting records. Smaller authorities must tell the public, including advertising this on their website, that the accounting records and related documents are available to inspect. By arrangement you will then have 30 working days to inspect and make copies of the accounting records. You may have to pay a copying charge. The 30 working day period must include a common period of inspection during which all smaller authorities' accounting records are available to inspect. This will be 1-14 July 2022 for 2021/22 accounts. The advertisement must set out the dates of the period for the exercise of public rights, how you can communicate to the smaller authority that you wish to inspect the accounting records and related documents, the name and address of the auditor, and the relevant legislation that governs the inspection of accounts and objections.

The right to ask the auditor questions about the accounting records

You should first ask your smaller authority about the accounting records, since they hold all the details. If you are a local elector, your right to ask questions of the external auditor is enshrined in law. However, while the auditor will answer your questions where possible, they are not always obliged to do so. For example, the question might be better answered by another organisation, require investigation beyond the auditor's remit, or involve disproportionate cost (which is borne by the local taxpayer). Give your smaller authority the opportunity first to explain anything in the accounting records that you are unsure about. If you are not satisfied with their explanation, you can question the external auditor about the accounting records.

The law limits the time available for you formally to ask questions. This must be done in the period for the exercise of public rights, so let the external auditor know your concern as soon as possible. The advertisement or notice that tells you the accounting records are available to inspect will also give the period for the exercise of public rights during which you may ask the auditor questions, which here means formally asking questions under the Act. You can ask someone to represent you when asking the external auditor questions.

PEASEDOWN ST JOHN PARISH COUNCIL

The Beacon Hall, French Close, Peasedown St John, BA2 8SN
Tel: 01761 433686 E-mail: clerk@peasedownstjohnparishcouncil.gov.uk
www.peasedownstjohnparishcouncil.gov.uk

Before you ask the external auditor any questions, inspect the accounting records fully, so you know what they contain. Please remember that you cannot formally ask questions, under the Act, after the end of the period for the exercise of public rights. You may ask your smaller authority other questions about their accounts for any year, at any time. But these are not questions under the Act.

You can ask the external auditor questions about an item in the accounting records for the financial year being audited. However, your right to ask the external auditor questions is limited. The external auditor can only answer 'what' questions, not 'why' questions. The external auditor cannot answer questions about policies, finances, procedures or anything else unless it is directly relevant to an item in the accounting records. Remember that your questions must always be about facts, not opinions. To avoid misunderstanding, we recommend that you always put your questions in writing.

The right to make objections at audit

You have inspected the accounting records and asked your questions of the smaller authority. Now you may wish to object to the accounts on the basis that an item in them is in your view unlawful or there are matters of wider concern arising from the smaller authority's finances. A local government elector can ask the external auditor to apply to the High Court for a declaration that an item of account is unlawful, or to issue a report on matters which are in the public interest. You must tell the external auditor which specific item in the accounts you object to and why you think the item is unlawful, or why you think that a public interest report should be made about it. You must provide the external auditor with the evidence you have to support your objection. Disagreeing with income or spending does not make it unlawful. To object to the accounts you must write to the external auditor stating you want to make an objection, including the information and evidence below and you must send a copy to the smaller authority. The notice must include:

- confirmation that you are an elector in the smaller authority's area;
- why you are objecting to the accounts and the facts on which you rely;
- details of any item in the accounts that you think is unlawful; and
- details of any matter about which you think the external auditor should make a public interest report.

Other than it must be in writing, there is no set format for objecting. You can only ask the external auditor to act within the powers available under the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014.

A final word

You may not use this 'right to object' to make a personal complaint or claim against your smaller authority. You should take such complaints to your local Citizens' Advice Bureau, local Law Centre or to your solicitor. Smaller authorities, and so local taxpayers, meet the costs of dealing with questions and objections. In deciding whether to take your objection forward, one of a series of factors the auditor must take into account is the cost that will be involved, they will only continue with the objection if it is in the public interest to do so. They may also decide not to consider an objection if they think that it is frivolous or vexatious, or if it repeats an objection already considered. If you appeal to the courts against an auditor's decision not to apply to the courts for a declaration that an item of account is unlawful, you will have to pay for the action yourself.

For more detailed guidance on public rights and the special powers of auditors, copies of the publication Local authority accounts: A guide to your rights are available from the NAO website.

If you wish to contact your authority's appointed external auditor please write to the address in paragraph 4 of the Notice of Public Rights and Publication of Unaudited Annual Governance & Accountability Return.
